New Christmas Program from Regular Baptist Press Causes Audiences to Consider What a Personal Relationship with Jesus Really Means

June 15, 2004 — Regular Baptist Press (RBP) announces the release of *A Prodigal's Christmas*, a new Christmas program written by Erin Kealen.

In *A Prodigal's Christmas*, some kids from church youth group decide to reach out to a homeless young man in their community. *A Prodigal's Christmas* will cause your audience to think about what a personal relationship with Jesus Christ really means. This is a wonderful program for children and youth or adults with both familiar and new music.

Erin Kealen has worked with church programs in Christian day schools and her local church. She is also a voice and piano teacher. She and her husband are involved in teen ministries in their local church, and Erin serves as an editorial assistant at Regular Baptist Press.

Regular Baptist Press' mission is to glorify God by providing church educational resources that are true to God's Word and encourage maturity in Christ. Regular Baptist Press was founded over 50 years ago to produce distinctively Baptist Sunday School curriculum based on the entire "counsel of God." Biblical integrity and doctrinal soundness have remained our hallmarks for over 50 years. Today over 10,000 churches rely on RBP for Sunday School curriculum, Vacation Bible School, Bible studies, ministry training, books, and resources that encourage maturity in Christ.

Regular Baptist Press is a ministry of the General Association of Regular Baptist Churches.
