Be the Kind of Man God Wants You to Be!

January 2006— First in a new series of Men's Bible studies, Regular Baptist Press (RBP) announces the release of A Man and His Money written by Mark Robbins.

Money can become a wall, separating a man from God's heart and will. But if a man views and handles money as God wants him to, it becomes a bridge that can help him approach God's goals of Biblical stewardship. This 8-lesson study helps men learn to honor God with their money, care for their families, and practice Biblical stewardship.

Mark Robbins, a CPA, is executive director of communications at Baptist Bible College and Seminary, Clarks Summit, Pennsylvania. He has a bachelor's degree in management from Purdue University and a graduate degree in ministry from Baptist Bible Seminary. He and his wife and three daughters live in Dalton, Pennsylvania.
