Preface

New believers in Christ need to be instructed in the Word of God as soon as possible after conversion. The best and most profitable way is by daily use and repetition of the Scriptures.

All you need is your Bible and a pen. Look up the verses indicated and fill in the blanks. Memorize the verses that are marked with an asterisk (*).

—Ralph O. Burns

What I Was Before God Saved Me

God's Word does not commend what I was before I was saved, but what it states is true and correct.

I was like a sheep going _____ (Isaiah 53:6*).

I was a _____ (Romans 5:8).

I was without _____, and I was _____ (Romans 5:6).

I was the _____ of God (Romans 5:10).

I was a sinner (1 Timothy 1:15*).

God says I was _____ in trespasses and sins (Ephesians 2:1).

I was following Satan, the prince of the power of the air (Ephesians 2:2).

As an unbeliever, I was already _____ (John 3:18).

God's _____ was upon me because I was an unbeliever (John 3:36).

God says, "All have sinned." I must acknowledge that I am a _____ (Romans 3:23*).

The _____ was my father (John 8:44).

I was _____ Christ, an _____, a _____ . I had no _____, and I was without God (Ephesians 2:12).

I was far off from God (Ephesians 2:13).

That is what I once was, but now I am saved!
