2s & 3s Lesson Truths

Spring 2020

Weeks 1–4: Serving in God’s House

Hannah prayed for a son in God’s house, and then she dedicated Samuel to God’s service. The theme of serving and obeying the Lord continues when Samuel goes to live in God’s house to help Eli, the high priest. Your child will be introduced to things he or she can do in God’s house—pray, serve the Lord and His people, and listen to and obey God’s Word.

Weeks 5–8: Worshiping God’s Son

The Bible stories for this unit focus on some of the events in Jesus’ life leading up to Easter. Your child will learn of Mary’s special gift to Jesus. We’ll celebrate Jesus’ triumphal entry into Jerusalem, introduce the truth of Jesus’ death, and rejoice in His resurrection. Your child will be glad that Jesus, God’s Son, is alive in Heaven.

Weeks 9–13: Worshiping in God’s House

The Bible stories for this unit include King David’s plans for building God’s house and Solomon’s oversight of the construction. Your child will begin to realize that a church is different from other buildings. Your child will be glad to come to church to sing praises to God and to learn God’s Word.

Praying in God's House

Praying in God's House

1 Samuel 1:1–18

THE BIBLE tells us about a lady named Hannah. Hannah and her husband loved each other very much. But one thing made Hannah very sad. Hannah did not have any children.

Soon it was time for Hannah and her husband to go to God's house. Today we call God's house the church. When Hannah and her husband arrived there, Hannah found a quiet place where she could pray. She closed her eyes, folded her hands, and bowed her head. But she didn't talk out loud. She talked to God in her heart.

"Dear God, if it would please You, I would like to have a baby son," she prayed.

Eli, the special minister in God's house, thought there was something wrong with Hannah. "Are you all right?" Eli asked.

"Yes," Hannah answered. "I was just asking God to give me a baby boy."

Eli said, "God has heard your prayer."

Let's talk about the picture:

1. Point to Hannah. What is she doing?
2. Point to Eli, the special minister.

A Bible Verse for You
