Notes to the Teacher

1. This book has been prepared for primary children. The book is perforated so you can tear out each sheet, complete it in class, and send it home with the child. Each page includes directions for completing the activities on that page.
2. The parent letter is on page 3. Send this page home with the child on the first Sunday of the quarter or deliver it personally before the quarter begins. Page 4 contains an overview of this quarter's lessons, along with a list of all the memory verses.
3. If a child is absent, make sure he receives his handwork sheet and the Strong Kids at Home take-home paper. This will help him review the Bible lesson he missed.

Using the Handwork Sheets

The first page of each lesson contains a Lesson Review section. This is an opportunity to review the previous week's lesson. As children arrive to class, let them work on the activity about five minutes into class time. Make sure the children's names are on their papers before you collect them.

You will use the handwork sheets again at the end of the lesson. The children will work on the activities on the back of the sheets. As they work, discuss the Bible story or its application. Let children do as much as time permits, but if they cannot complete the page in class, allow them to take it home and finish it.

Summer Quarter 2020

Thank you for bringing your child to Sunday School!

An exciting quarter of studies awaits your child in the summer quarter of Primary Sunday School. The book of Acts in the New Testament is action-packed. We will read of the coming of the Holy Spirit, the start of the first church, and then exciting accounts of men like Peter, Stephen, Philip, and Paul. Then we will jump to the book of Revelation and discover the wonderful future God has in store for believers.

In units 1 and 2, your child will learn important lessons on serving God and others. He will learn that it, if he is a believer, it is the Holy Spirit Who helps him do God's will and serve God well. Importantly, your child will learn the importance of sharing the gospel with everyone, out of obedience to Jesus' command to all His followers.

The third unit of this quarter deals with future events: the Rapture, Jesus' Second Coming, Jesus' Kingdom on earth, and the eternal home He is preparing for believers. Jesus promised He would return one day. And though we don't know when He will return, we know that God never fails His promises.

Discuss your child's worksheet with him when he brings it home. Set aside time each week to help him memorize his Bible memory verse, listed on the back of this sheet. He will need to recite the current week's verse the following Sunday in class.

Encourage your child to read the Strong Kids at Home take-home paper and complete the fun puzzles and activities. Read through the spiritual growth measurables to engage in your child's learning with him. Your child will learn a lot about serving this quarter, and we encourage you to find ways to let him serve!

If you or your child have spiritual needs or questions, please contact us or our pastor. We are always willing to help!

Sincerely,

Teacher

Jerusalem Makeover

NAME _____

God offers us forgiveness when we sin.

Find and circle the hidden objects below the picture. Then draw a line from the sentence to the object that best describes it.

Nehemiah's job was to serve this to the king.

This is what Nehemiah did when he heard the sad news from Jerusalem.

He helped Nehemiah by providing materials for the building project.

Everyone agreed to work together to do this.

Two bulls mocked the workers and said this animal could knock down the wall.

Nehemiah set guards with these to protect the workers.

Each worker carried this in one hand as he worked with the other hand.

At the celebration, Ezra read from this to the people.

The Spirit's Powerful Arrival
