God's Sovereignty and Me

1 Read Job 42:1, 2.

No one can stop God's plans because God is sovereign. What does it mean for God to be "sovereign"? Use the code to finish the explanation.

God is sovereign in that He has absolute

2 Read Psalm 29:10.

Thousands of years ago, God sat enthroned at the Flood as the sovereign over all the earth. Will God still be sovereign 1,000 years from now?

☐ yes ☐ no

A million years from now?

☐ yes ☐ no

How about forever?

☐ yes ☐ no

Color what you think God's "forever throne" might look like.

My Time in God's Word

3 Read Isaiah 43:13.

God said that what He does cannot be reversed. Everything God does is forever! Jesus' death on the cross for your sins can never be undone! Write a praise to God for saving sinners forever!

4 Read Ephesians 3:20, 21.

God's sovereignty means He is not limited by anyone or anything. In fact, He is so powerful that we can't even imagine everything God could do. Draw something amazing God could do, then draw something even more amazing.

Amazing!

More amazing!

5 Read Ephesians 3:20, 21.

God's sovereignty means you can pray with absolute confidence in God's ability to answer. God's sovereignty should motivate you to pray every day! Pray to God 3 times in the next 24 hours. Rejoice in His sovereignty!
