Starry Night in the Outback

The outback is a huge area of land in the middle of Australia. There are almost no lights in the outback. So it is the perfect place to go stargazing. Wow! Just look at all those stars!

Since God could make all these stars, He can help you. Trust Him. Be confident in Him!

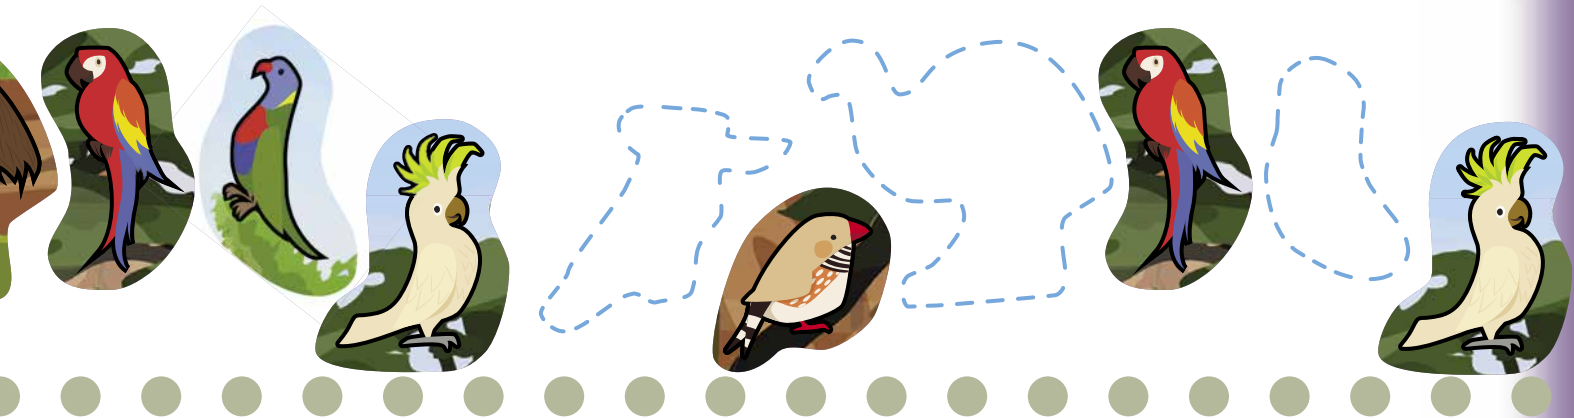

Point to the "cloud" of stars.
That's our galaxy, the Milky Way.

Finish coloring the aurora australis, or southern lights, in bright colors. They look like a bright curtain in the sky!

DOWN UNDER WONDER!

- The emu is Australia's national bird.
- The emu is the second biggest bird in the world.
- Emus can run up to 30 miles per hour, so racing an emu is not a good idea! But emus can't walk backward.

I Can Trust the Eternal God

God told Moses His special name—"I Am." God is the living, eternal God! "Eternal God" means that God always has been God and always will be God. So we can trust Him, no matter what!

Have a grown-up read the action rhyme as you do the actions.

Echo "I can trust my eternal God!"

When I am young and feel so small,
I can trust my eternal God!

When I grow strong and tall,
I can trust my eternal God!

When I'm afraid and don't know what to do,
I can trust my eternal God!

When I need to know what is true,
I can trust my eternal God!

When I feel alone and sad,
I can trust my eternal God!

When life is good and I feel glad,
I can trust my eternal God!
