There's a lot to love about llamas! Cross out the letters B, J, Q, V, and Z in the grid on the top right. Then, starting at the top left, read down each column to find words that complete each statement.

- Llamas don't live in the _____. They are _____ animals.
- Llamas are _____ as _____ animals in the _____.
- Llamas are great at _____ smaller animals like _____ or _____.
- Llamas' _____ nature make them good _____ animals for helping people who are _____ and _____ hurting.

Llamas are loving animals, but their love is conditional. If you threaten or anger them, they spit and kick at you. However, God's love is unconditional. He gave the gift of Jesus, even before we loved Him back—and even to people who were His enemies.

LOVE: “Choosing to help someone because you care, expecting nothing in return, not even love or help.”

Has anyone shown you that kind of love? At least one has—Jesus Christ!

Write some things people think the word “love” means. Do they match the definition above?
